HOLY CROSS CATHOLIC CHURCH 208 SANGLEY ROAD SE6 2JS

7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER 2022
29TH MAY 2022

THE STONING OF STEPHEN: Stephen was a man who was respected and had a very good reputation. He was one of the Seven appointed by the apostles as a servant. We are told that he was full of God's grace and power and he performed miraculous signs. It is also shown that Stephen was a dynamic and wise speaker. He went to the synagogue to teach about Christ.

The Jews at the Synagogue spread lies that Stephen was blaspheming against Moses, God and the temple. When the High Priest asked Stephen if the charges were true Stephen went on to show his devotion to God by telling the story of how God worked through his people to bring Jesus to the world even though throughout Israel's history they kept rejecting those God sent to them to lead and rescue them.

To put someone to death they required the approval of the Roman Procurator. In most cases though, the Roman procurator bent to the demands of the Sanhedrin. It is interesting to note that the Stoning of Stephen was most likely illegal, as there is no indication of the Sanhedrin seeking the confirmation of the Roman procurator. By comparison the crucifixion of Christ went through all the "proper" routes of justice and was a legal (although unjust) crucifixion.

After the Stoning of Stephen followers of Christ began to leave Jerusalem to escape further persecution. The good news about Jesus began to spread because, wherever they went, they told others about Christ. Stephen was a faithful follower of Christ whose only crime was obedience to the Lord. He is referred to as the first Christian martyr.

7TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Entrance Hymn (see board)

Entrance Antiphon

Cf. Ps 26: 7-9

O Lord, hear my voice, for I have called to you;
of you my heart has spoken: Seek his face;
hide not your face from me, alleluia.

First reading

Acts 7:55-60

Stephen, filled with the Holy Spirit, gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at God's right hand. 'I can see heaven thrown open' he said 'and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God.' At this all the members of the council shouted out and stopped their ears with their hands; then they all rushed at him, sent him out of the city and stoned him. The witnesses put down their clothes at the feet of a young man called Saul. As they were stoning him, Stephen said in invocation, 'Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.' Then he knelt down and said aloud, 'Lord, do not hold this sin against them'; and with these words he fell asleep.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 96(97):1-2b,6-7,9

The Lord is king, most high above all the earth.

The Lord is king, let earth rejoice,
the many coastlands be glad.
His throne is justice and right.

The skies proclaim his justice;
all peoples see his glory.
All you spirits, worship him.

For you indeed are the Lord
most high above all the earth,
exalted far above all spirits.

The Lord is king, most high above all the earth.

Second reading

Apocalypse 22:12-14,16-17,20

I, John, heard a voice speaking to me: 'Very soon now, I shall be with you again, bringing the reward to be given to every man according to what he deserves. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. Happy are those who will have washed their robes clean, so that they will have the right to feed on the tree of life and can come through the gates into the city.'

I, Jesus, have sent my angel to make these revelations to you for the sake of the churches. I am of David's line, the root of David and the bright star of the morning.

The Spirit and the Bride say, 'Come.' Let everyone who listens answer, 'Come.' Then let all who are thirsty come: all who want it may have the water of life, and have it free.

The one who guarantees these revelations repeats his promise: I shall indeed be with you soon.

Amen; come, Lord Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation

cf. Jn 14:18

Alleluia, alleluia!

I will not leave you orphans, says the Lord;
I will come back to you,
and your hearts will be full of joy.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 17:20-26

Jesus raised his eyes to heaven and said:

'Holy Father,

I pray not only for these,
but for those also who through their words
will believe in me.

May they all be one.

Father, may they be one in us,
as you are in me and I am in you,
so that the world may believe it was you who sent me.
I have given them the glory you gave to me,
that they may be one as we are one.

With me in them and you in me,
may they be so completely one that the world will realise that it was you who sent me
and that I have loved them as much as you loved me.
Father, I want those you have given me
to be with me where I am, so that they may always see the glory you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

Father, Righteous One,
the world has not known you,
but I have known you,
and these have known that you have sent me.
I have made your name known to them
and will continue to make it known, so that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and so that I may be in them.'

Bible Verse to Remember: Matthew 6:33-34 "But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you. "Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about its own things. Sufficient for the day is its own trouble.
