22/ 23 June 2024

Dear Parishioner,

I am glad to meet and greet you through this newsletter.

Last week, we contemplated the preciousness of life and our responsibility to cherish and safeguard it. This week, we will reflect on the message from the second reading: "From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh" (2 Corinthians 5:16). Let us ask the Lord for the grace to understand the dignity of our bodies and to reject any discrimination based on physical appearance.

We learn the Catechesis of the Catholic Church step by step in these weeks. This week, we continue to reflect our response to God's call through faith.

Catholic FAITH [Part 10 ]

MAN'S RESPONSE TO GOD - Faith [CCC 176 to 184]

Last week, we reflected that faith is our loving response to God's invitation to friendship. The following teachings of the Catechism of the Catholic Church summarises and enlightens our understanding about our faith.

- ◇ CCC 176 Faith is a personal adherence of the whole man to God who reveals himself. It involves an assent of the intellect and will to the self-revelation God has made through his deeds and words.
- ◇ 177 "To believe" has thus a twofold reference: to the person, and to the truth: to the truth, by trust in the person who bears witness to it.
- ◇ 178 We must believe in no one but God: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
- ◇ 179 Faith is a supernatural gift from God. In order to believe, man needs the interior helps of the Holy Spirit.
- ◇ 180 "Believing" is a human act, conscious and free, corresponding to the dignity of the human person.
- ◇ 181 "Believing" is an ecclesial act. the Church's faith precedes, engenders, supports and nourishes our faith. the Church is the mother of all believers. "No one can have God as Father who does not have the Church as Mother" (St. Cyprian, De unit. 6: PL 4, 519).
- ◇ 182 We believe all "that which is contained in the word of God, written or handed down, and which the Church proposes for belief as divinely revealed".
- ◇ 183 Faith is necessary for salvation. The Lord himself affirms: "He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who does not believe will be condemned" (Mk 16:16).
- ◇ 184 "Faith is a foretaste of the knowledge that will make us blessed in the life to come" (St. Thomas Aquinas. Comp. theol. 1, 2).

God is ALWAYS
faithful.

Updated Lectionary

The updated Lectionary is due to be published and released by CTS in various published forms from 14 October 2024. We are proud that the CTS CEO, Piero Finaldi, is from our parish.

The Lectionary is mandatory for use in the Liturgy throughout the Archdiocese from the First Sunday of Advent (1 December 2024). The Lectionary may be used before that date. Using the English Standard Version - Catholic Edition of the Bible and the Abbey Psalter this edition makes more provision for inclusive language where possible and attempts to make the text more easily proclaimed in public.
